INTERVIEWER INSTRUCTIONS

Other assets such as livestock or jewelry should not be included, even if the respondent thinks of these assets as savings. Before you ask the questions, stress the confidential nature of the interview and assure the respondent that information will not be divulged to anyone - not even the respondent's spouse/partner or village officials.

You must ask about money saved in the accounts listed in questions 14a - 14d, including money that is stored at home or at a neighbor's home.
